Business Information Solutions

RICOH
imagine. change.

Organizations that actively manage their print fleets can save between 10% and 30% in print costs*

Does This Sound Like Your Current Situation?

You've stepped up efforts to trim unnecessary wasteful spending including costs associated with printing and copying devices and services. There are however, many challenges to overcome – from high printer to user ratios, to numerous non-networked multifunctional devices and printers, to non-existent audit trails. Furthermore, if your area handles documents containing patient demographic information, patient health information and financial data, you may find that gaps in technology are presenting risks that can result in security breaches leading to reputational damage, fines or even lawsuits.

Take control of your print fleet with Ricoh.

Ricoh's print management solutions help make information work for you by providing detailed analysis, rules and cost recovery capability around all printing, copying, scanning and faxing activity. With our centralized management solution, we can help you reduce costs, optimize uptime, meet regulatory compliance and safeguard information, allowing you to redirect resources to deliver the highest quality patient care possible.

	Your Challenge: Reducing Print, Copy, and Fax Costs Our Solution: You're seeking innovative ways to lower costs. Ricoh has helped large healthcare organizations monitor all print usage with our advanced rules-based control module.
