

eForms Manager

Boost business agility with smart processes

Eliminate many of the bottlenecks and delays of manual and traditional paper-based workflows with Ricoh eForms Manager. With this no-code solution, businesses of all sizes can easily create and customize automated workflows that match their specific needs — enabling remote work, faster processes and better business agility.

Automate tasks that kill productivity

Many administrative tasks are error-prone and slow, as well as labour-intensive. eForms Manager makes process automation easy.

Improve your customer and employee experience

Self-serve processes bring speed, information accuracy and instant gratification to users.

Start with one process. Then another.

Transforming to digital processes allows you to move more quickly and provides better overall management of that part of the business.

Where could you use some automation?

- ✓ Sales order entries
- ✓ Timesheets
- ✓ Purchase requisitions
- ✓ Travel authorizations
- ✓ Expense claims
- ✓ New customers/vendors
- ✓ Change request forms
- ✓ New hire onboarding

Automate these and many other slow, costly processes.

Drive process automation with Ricoh eForms Manager

Handle multi-step processes seamlessly. Intelligent rules automatically route, advance steps and handle exceptions.

Remote worker ready

Is hybrid working making manual processes even more manual? You can still bring automated processes into the hybrid workstyle with full audit trail capabilities, electronic signature capture and the ability to automatically escalate or notify management of workflows that are stuck and need special attention.

Powerful tools to analyze and improve

The ability to identify workflow trends gives administrators the insights and intelligence necessary to identify areas where delays typically occur. With this knowledge in hand, they can then fine tune business logic to make processes more effective. Our professional services team can help you build automation into your digital transformation strategy — making your existing processes even better.
